EVALUATION

FACT CRASHING™

The early focus on ambient, contextual data to access claims and defenses, and develop the case narrative.

FACT
/fakt/ noun

The truth about events, as opposed to interpretation, as reflected in digital information.

CRASHING
/'kraSHiNG/ verb

The compression of project activities to deliver results sooner than originally planned.

FACT CRASHING™: Evaluation

iDS offers clients a no risk Fact Crashing™ Evaluation for qualified engagements. This includes our review of key documents (e.g., complaint, discovery requests, etc.), in addition to a 45-minute meeting with counsel and two iDS team members to discuss your goals, the questions of fact, potential data sources and strategy for resolution. We will prepare a brief memo outlining our recommendations for a data-centric approach to resolving your questions of fact.

This is all done for a flat fee of $1,500.

FACT CRASHING™: Evaluation FAQs

What qualifies a project?

Any project with at least a $15,000 overall budget.

What's next?

Clients can engage services immediately following or request a full Fact Crashing™ Assessment ($9,995 - $14,995) to develop a more detailed approach.

Who participates in the evaluation?

At least two team members, one of which will be a senior team member with testifying experience. Don't be surprised if you have Dan Regard (Founder and CEO) or Hunter McMahon (COO) participate...they have too much fun collaborating with clients.

What's the catch?

None. We believe in this process and are confident that you will find value.

OUR GUARANTEE to you is that if you don't find value or choose to not engage iDS for additional services to support your case, we won't send you an invoice for the evaluation. No value, no invoice.
